MISS GREGORY'S TALKS TO YOUNG WOMEN

NUMBER 52

HELP WANTED-FEMALE

Miss Gregory
Miss Gregory
Time been

Dear Miss Gragory

I want you to know that wife and I have for some time been interested in your "Talks to Young Women."

We have a young daughter the one child left at home to cheer our old age) who has lately been anxious to get away from the farm and join the great army of war-workers in your city. But having no acquaintance there, we have feared to let her fly out of the home next to light among strangers, and so tried to keep her content at home.

As I said, we have been reading your good talks about the surroundings and supervision of your telephone girls, until we were beginning to feel almost as if it would be all right to let her take a position with you-only. You know, it pulls at the heart strings even to think of her leaving home, and so we couldn't quite make up our minds to it. But when I read your talk in yesterday's paper and thought of my boy "over there" walting his turn to go to the front. I couldn't say "No" when our girlle pleaded for permission to do her "bit" toward ending the war by working for the telephone company.

So her mother is getting her ready to start, and she will be there in a few days. We hope she will do her part all right.

Respectfully yours.

Now let us hear from others. Are there not other fathers and mothers (per chance with boys in the new draft) whose daughters can be spared from home to help speed up the war work in this way?
